ICAI-Canada History—Amanda McKenzie

- Began as an idea in 2013 but was officially established in 2014 by Troy Brooks (Brock U), Jo Hinchcliffe (SFU) & Amanda McKenzie (UWaterloo).

- First meeting was at the ICAI Jacksonville, FL. conference in 2014 with approx. 23 people from 15 Canadian campuses. Recent events have drawn over 50 people from across Canada and beyond!

- Intent is to provide Canadians in higher education an opportunity to engage with one another and discuss Canadian content.

- ICAI Canada started as a “regional” branch of the ICAI but recently was more appropriately named a “national” consortium.

- From 2016-2023, Amanda McKenzie was the sole founder remaining and, with the aid of various long-term supporters, would form a Planning Committee each year to structure and facilitate the Canadian Day.

- In 2022-23, Amanda guided ICAI Canada to develop terms of reference and a formal governance structure. Leadership responsibility now falls to Jennie Miron, (Chair) and Angela Clarke (Vice-Chair).
Keynote—Academic Integrity Leadership & Community Building in Canadian Higher Education

Dr. Sarah Elaine Eaton—University of Calgary

Sarah Elaine Eaton, PhD, is an Associate Professor, Werklund School of Education, University of Calgary.

Amanda McKenzie—University of Waterloo

Amanda McKenzie, M.A., is the Director of Office of Academic Integrity at the University of Waterloo. She has been at the forefront of academic integrity initiatives on a provincial, national, and international level. Amanda is a subject matter expert in this area and has spoken around the world. She has also published a number of articles and book chapters in this field. In addition, she has created several learning modules on academic integrity for undergraduates and graduate students. Her current area of interest is the intersection of academic integrity and quality assurance.

Dr. Brenda Stoesz—University of Manitoba

In her role as Research Lead – Science of Teaching and Learning, Dr. Brenda M. Stoesz conceptualizes and leads the science of teaching and learning research portfolio and maintains an active research program at The Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning, University of Manitoba. Currently, Brenda is involved in research, evaluation, and quality assurance projects in the areas of academic integrity, artificial intelligence, faculty educator training in VR environments, and perceptions and use of online learning environments using various methodologies and technologies.

Regional Reflections
Provincial Update
British Columbia—
Ainsley Rouse

• The British Columbia Academic Integrity Network (BCAIN) facilitates resource sharing and communication that inspire best practices in academic integrity to advance scholarship and professionalism. The BC AIN was founded by Tod Denham.

• BC Academic Integrity Network (BC AIN) holds monthly meetings to discuss academic integrity news, current events, and topics. Meetings are held the last Tuesday of each month.

• BC Academic Integrity Day is held yearly in October and hosted by one BC institution: UBC (2023), Langara College (2022), Douglas College (2021) and TRU (2019).

• Provincial representative to ICAI Canada (Ainsley Rouse, UBC) connects provincial activities and news from the BC AIN to the national network and provides updates on activities.

• To join the BC AIN visit our website (https://bcain.trubox.ca/) and submit a request to join the network.
Provincial Update
Alberta—Garrett Beatty

• The ACAI (Alberta Council on Academic Integrity) has welcomed a new steering committee as of spring 2023 (thank you to our inaugural members!)

• Annual provincial meeting May 2 in Edmonton
  • Opportunities for collaboration/input on ACAI position statement on text matching software

• Alberta Academic Integrity Week was October 16-20
  • Successful initiatives hosted by UCalgary, MRU, Bow Valley College, MacEwan University, and other institutions across the province
  • UCalgary formed an official Academic Integrity Week planning committee

• Generative AI continues to be a huge topic of discussion for institutions in Alberta, many of which have created resources and supports for students, staff, and faculty
  • Creating gen AI policy has proven to be challenging as the landscape of gen AI changes so rapidly
Provincial Update
Saskatchewan—Susan Bens

- Provincial Academic Integrity Community of Practice
  - Established in 2021 by co-leads Ann Liang (USask) and Tasha Maddison (SaskPoly). Meeting 4-6 times/year, the group sometimes invites a presenter to lead discussion around a certain topic and other times opens up for the topics of shared interest in the meeting
  - Recent discussion about how to increase engagement and offer more collaborative PD as is done some other provinces.

- Regional College System
  - A multiple institution and distributed campus system, some report the shift to more online and virtual assessments has presented new academic misconduct concerns.
  - Colleges that broker courses for other institutions must also attend to the regulations of the home institution and what serves as sufficient evidences of academic misconduct.

- SaskPolytechnic
  - A single institution with multiple campuses, an institutional committee for academic integrity monitors trends and issues and an Academic Integrity Consultant was recently hired as part of Student Services.
  - The teaching centre hosts monthly meetings of an Academic Integrity community of practice, in collaboration with library and learning technologies.

- Universities
  - University of Regina (federated with First Nations University of Canada) joined ICAI as an institutional member, created an “Academic Integrity Hub” website, and is updating policy
  - University of Saskatchewan engaged in a two year project to develop improved systems for supporting academic integrity and addressing academic misconduct. Policy, website updates underway. Permanent investment is to be proposed.
Provincial Update
Manitoba—Josh Seeland

• AIIIM 2024
• MAIN Speaker Series 23/24
  • 24/25
• UM working on policy updates
• ACC updated AI policy and created procedure manual
• RRCP:
  • held professional development day with AI content
  • AI Specialist now reports to Manager of Academic Quality
  • New AI policy is implemented

• Vogt et al college policy study accepted by 'Canadian Journal of Educational Administration and Policy'
• Seeland & Openo edited book "Academic integrity and the role of the academic library"
• Vogt editing book in same series, "Academic Integrity in Vocational and Polytechnic Education"
Provincial Update
Ontario—Rachel Gorjup

• AICO – Continuing monthly AICO Hour meetings and Biannual Meetings (Spring/Fall)
• NEW: AICO Academic Integrity Initiatives Subcommittee
• Trends:
  • Faculty questions regarding substantiating allegations of unauthorized AI use
  • Ongoing issues with exam monitoring software (e.g., Respondus) as students continue to bypass software
  • Many institutions updating academic integrity policies to include information about the use of artificial intelligence
Provincial Update
Québec—Martine Peters

• Organization of a provincial network of academic integrity is being put together to regroup colleges and universities

• PUPP-ENAI-CSAI Gatineau 2024 (May 21st-24th)

• PUPP data collection: interviews 67 profs and 44 groups of students and more coming
Provincial Update
New Brunswick—Cynthia Potvin

• For now, there is no provincial network specifically on Academic Integrity, but there is the Maritime Provinces Higher Education Commission (MPHEC)

• The Maritime Provinces Higher Education Commission (MPHEC)
  • Research & statistics, Quality assurance, Province-specific services
  • Guidelines for Institutional Framework for Online and Technology-Supported Learning (MPHEC, 2023)
    • 5 non-hierarchical dimensions: (1) Planning and Policies, (2) Infrastructure, (3) Academic Oversight, (4) Instructional Design, and (5) Student Support Services
      • 1 out of 5 criteria in (1) Planning and Policies talks about academic integrity: "(e) Policies, procedures, and practices foster academic honesty and integrity" (MPHEC, 2023: 5)
At Université de Moncton, there is online information about academic integrity and artificial intelligence.
