

International Day of Action for Academic Integrity 2023

Teaching resources on the theme of 'Championing academic integrity in the age of AI'

This is a list of open-access recommended teaching resources that could be used by others on the theme of 'Championing academic integrity in the age of AI', with links and some notes about how they could be used. The idea of the list is to provide teaching resources for the International Day of Action for Academic Integrity.

Resource	Author	Brief description	Additional notes - how it could be used/ learning outcomes	Website link (Please note URLs are given because hyperlinks may not work in different regions)
The Two AIs: Academic Integrity and Artificial Intelligence	University of Adelaide, Australia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Video providing general guidance to AI in relation to academic integrity - Guidance on Artificial Intelligence 	2 minute video useful for introductory general guidance Artificial Intelligence guidelines for students (PPT)	https://www.adelaide.edu.au/student/academic-skills/academic-integrity-for-students
Improving student learning by linking inclusion/accessibility and academic integrity	QAA funded project between Oxford Brookes University, Bloomsbury Institute London, University of Southampton and University of Westminster, UK	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Teaching resources for staff and students - Student Academic Integrity Champion model - Student voice videos 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 10 resources for teaching students inclusively and accessibly about academic integrity. Themes could be adapted to AI eg with 'Truths and Myths' menti activity (opens as Word doc) 2. Snakes and ladders game 3. Student Academic 	https://www.qaa.ac.uk/en/membership/collaborative-enhancement-projects/academic-integrity/the-improvement-of-student-learning-by-linking-inclusion-accessibility-and-academic-integrity

			Integrity Champion model could be used to establish system of student champions at institution. 4. Student voice videos for peer advice.
Using AI ethically	Monash University, Australia	Video (made by students) to help students understand ethical use of AI	Advice to students about using AI to help study but not replace study, advice about transparency, privacy and appropriacy	https://monash.au.panopto.com/Panopto/Pages/Embed.aspx?id=89ed71d3-972c-4939-b6ce-afd50109d15e&start=0
"UOW Age of Integrity"	ENAI	Online game for students and educators		https://www.academicintegrity.eu/wp/age-of-integrity-game-uow/
2 videos: "A Guide to Cheating" "Credit where it's due"	University of Dundee	Two short videos,	developed to be used both with students, (generating discussion etc) and independently.	1: A Guide to Cheating: https://vimeo.com/289678670 2: Credit where it's due: https://vimeo.com/654644280
Promoting Academic Integrity	The American University of Nigeria	A short video modelling how to avoid plagiarism	The Writing Center and Office of Judicial Affairs collaborated with one of the Communication and Multimedia Design classes to develop this video and sensitize students about academic integrity and the	https://drive.google.com/file/d/1uhdx7O-2vBLJrZ3PKUQDO-5A2MVbxnEC/view?usp=sharing need to cite sources.

Academic Integrity & Artificial Intelligence Video	Sheridan College, Ontario, Canada	A short video created by Sheridan College's Academic Integrity Office on the ethical use of AI tools	A 3-minute video that can be used to introduce students to the ethical use of AI tools.	https://youtu.be/vXT3H36jaYA?si=eY0pUeg8uQW7Y5bL